

Knitted Lightscape

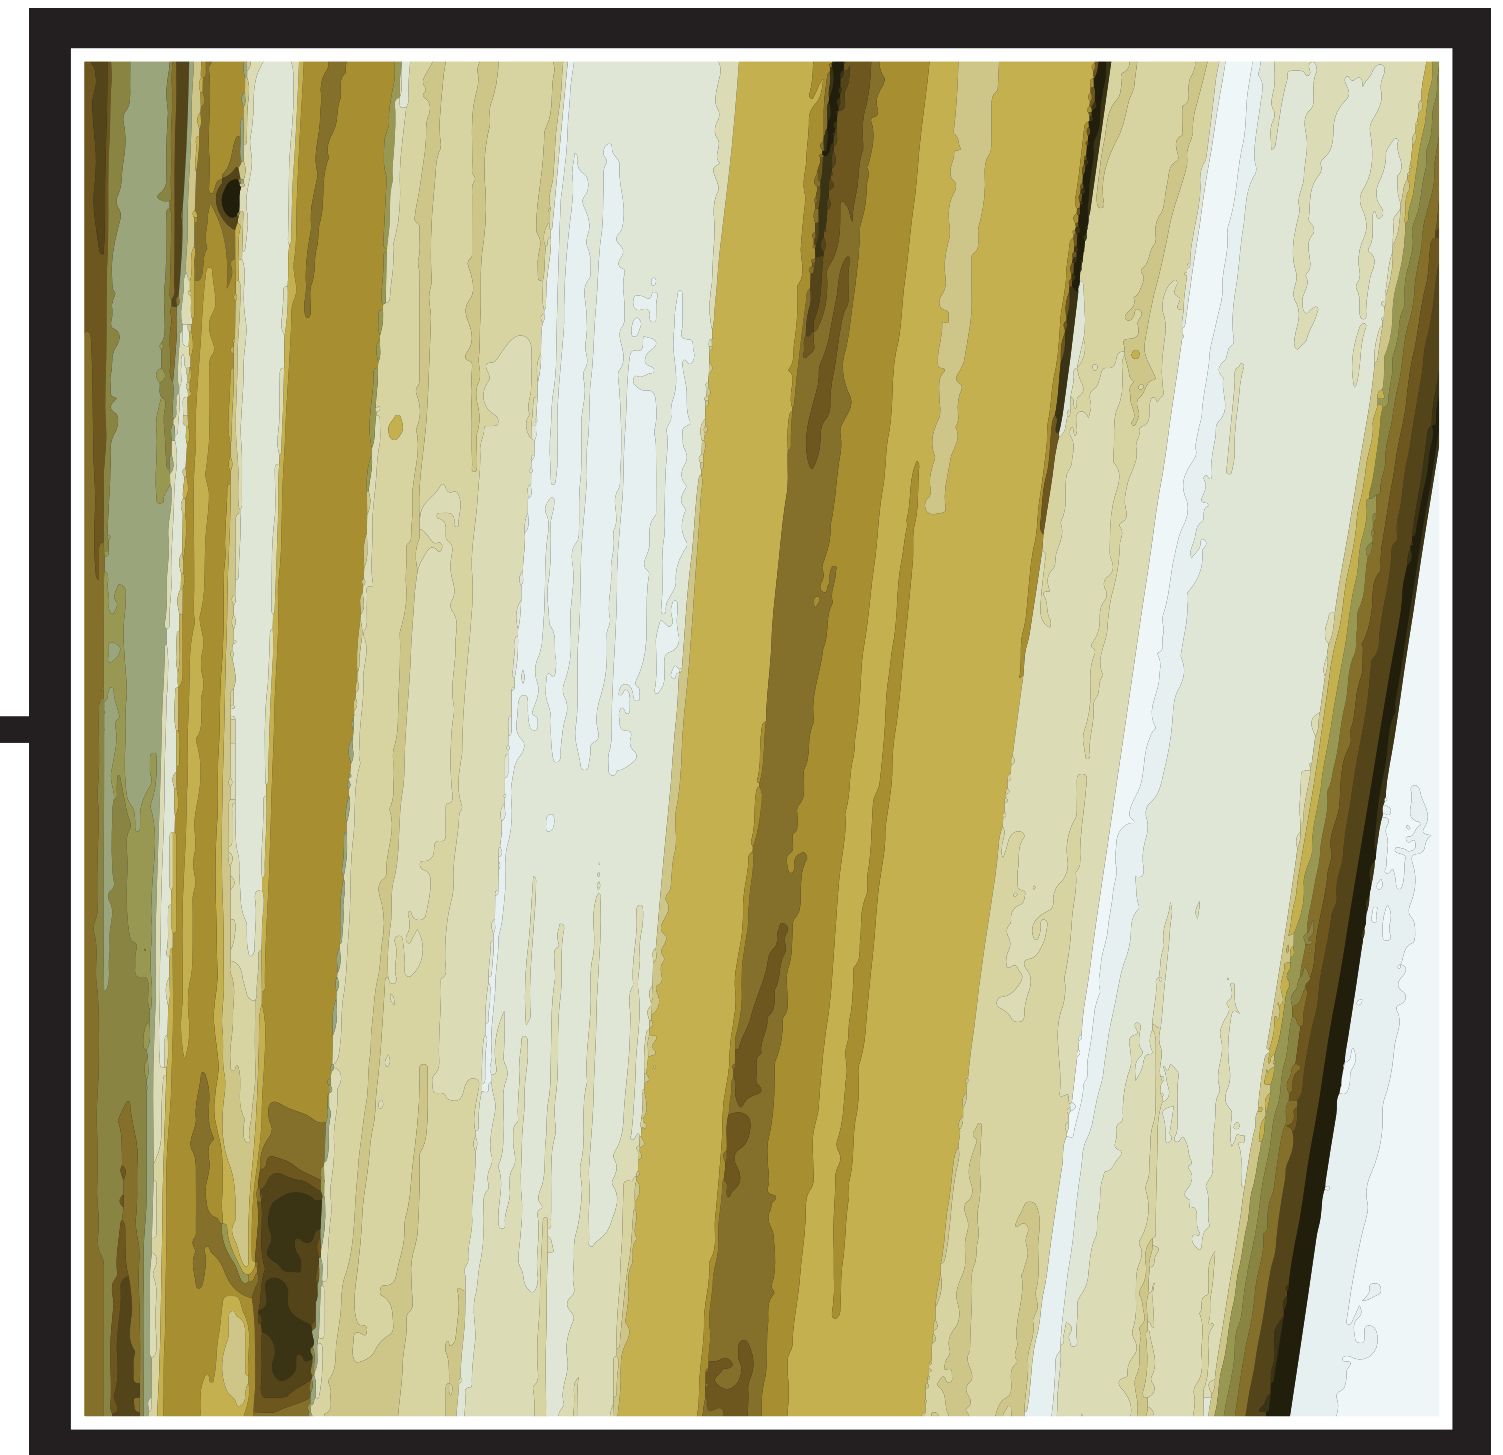

Texture

Light

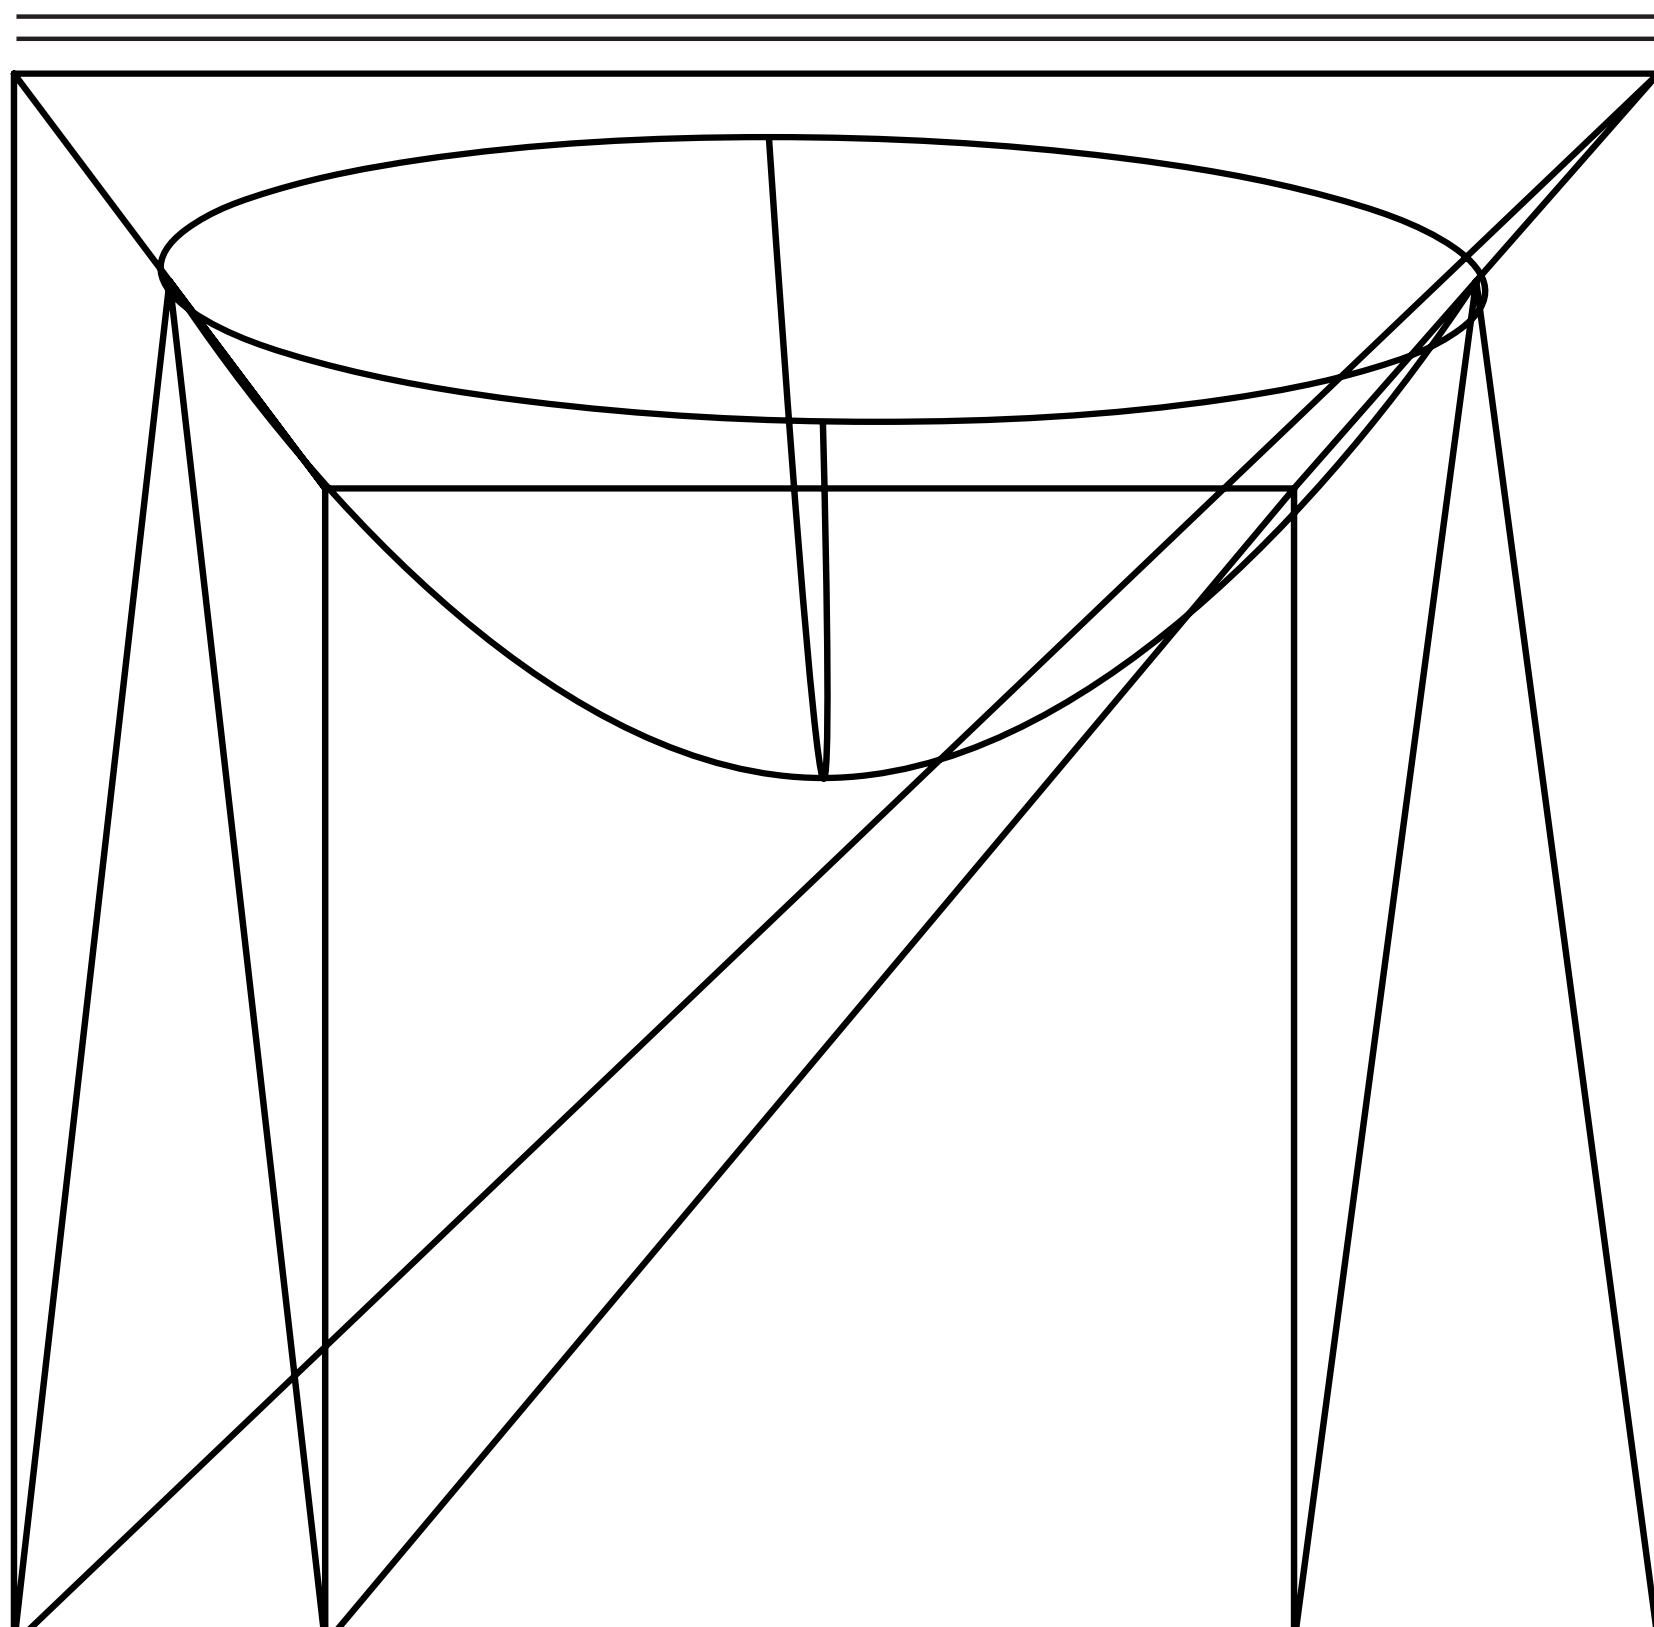

Wood

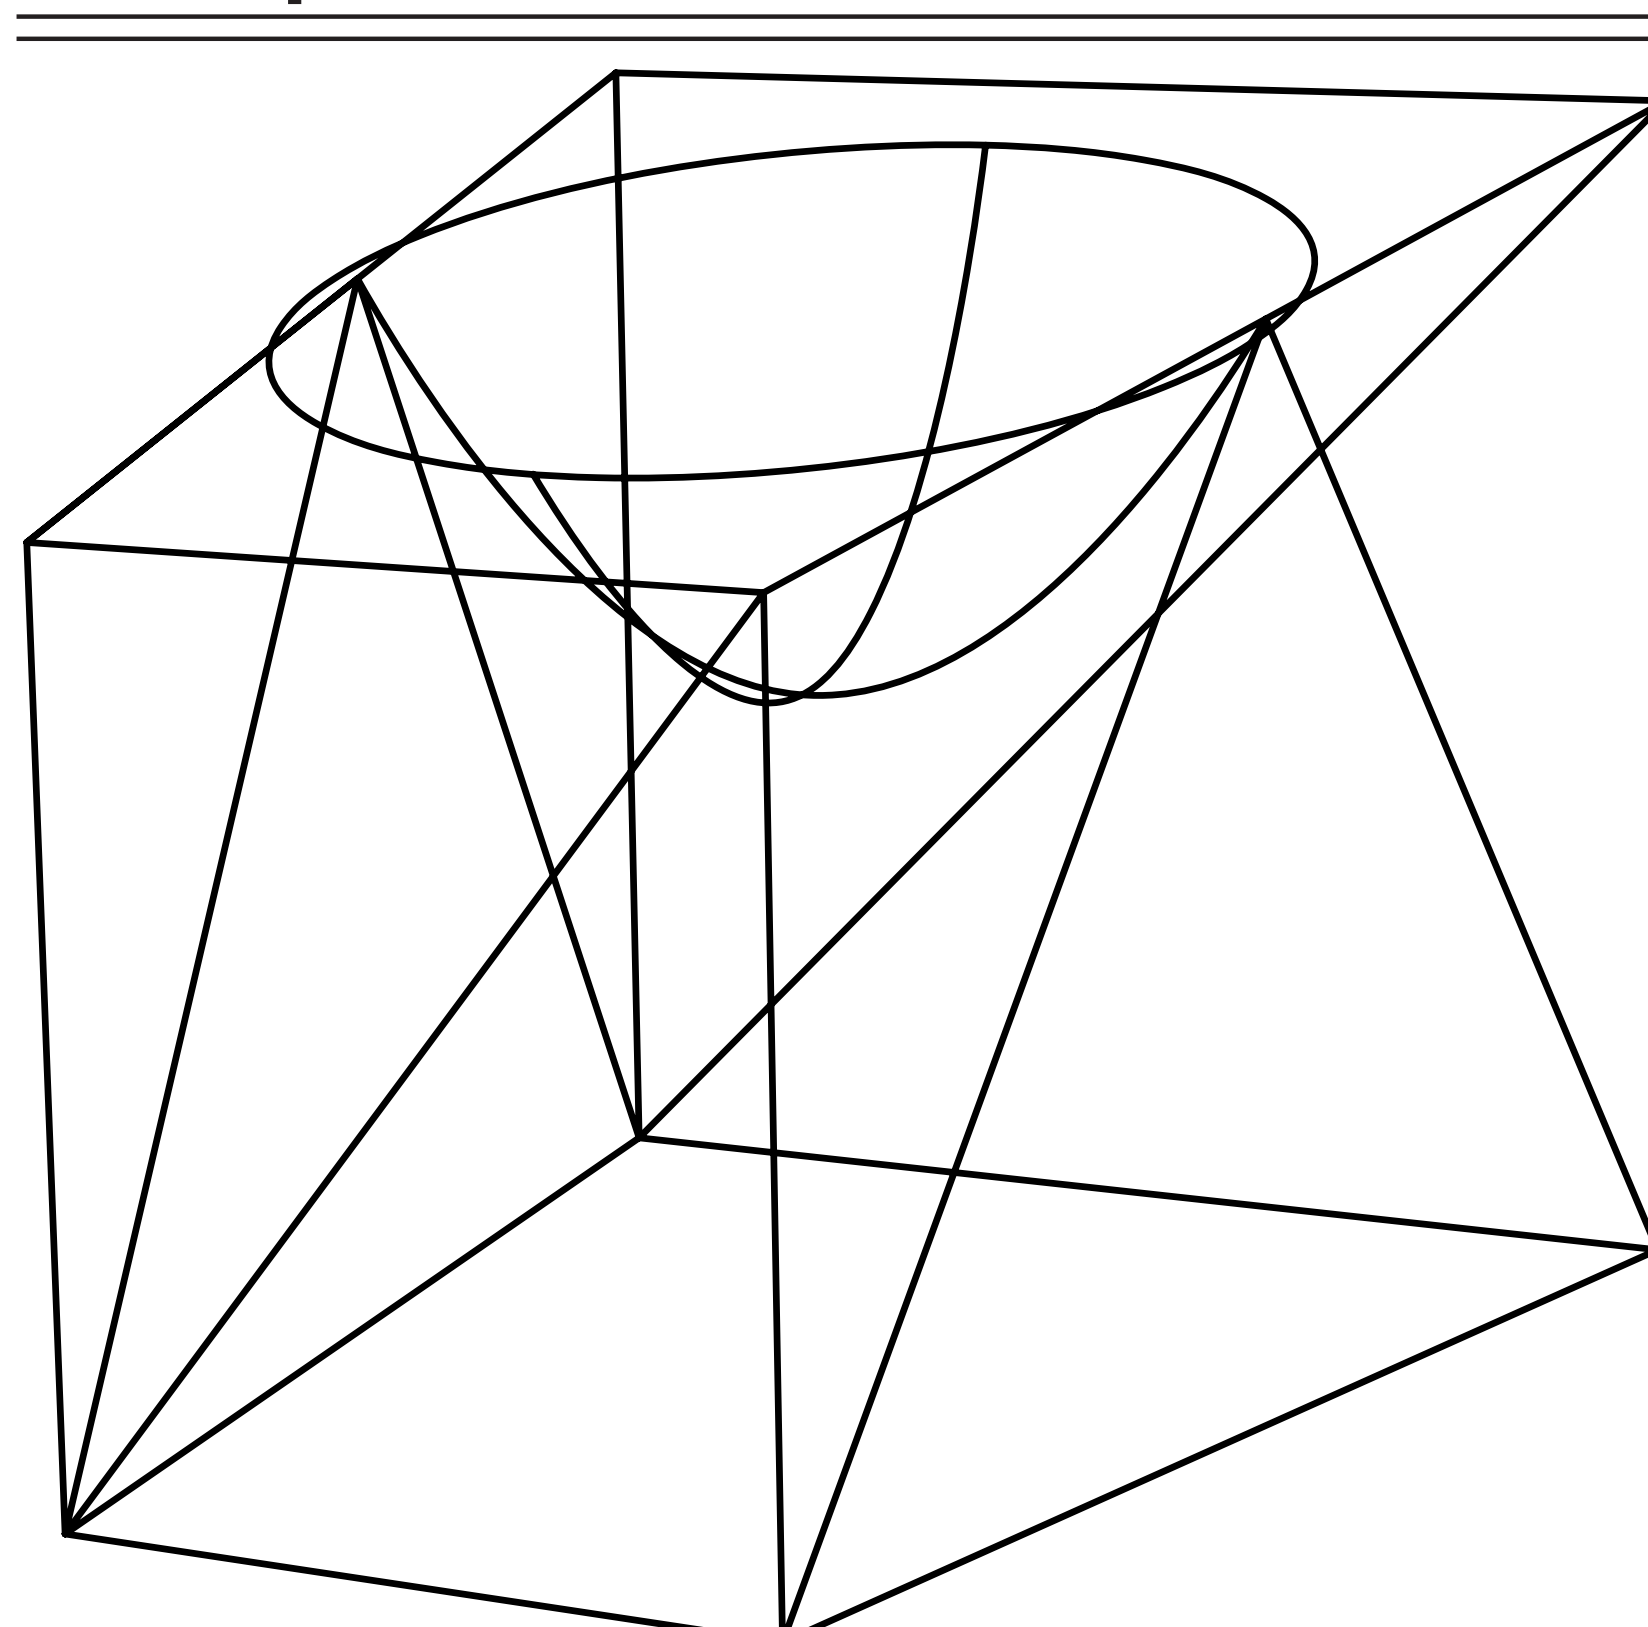

Concept

Our concept is to create a wooden box structure with 157 French knitted light tubes hanging from the ceiling above your head, forming a hemispherical lightscape. The lights are solar powered, white fairy lights that will be surrounded by different shades of knitted blue yarn, which will be hanging from a fishing net. Clear tarpaulin covers the roof, providing shelter.

Front view

Perspective

Section

